TOM CONDON HELD UP IN LOS ANGELES

Thomas Condon, who is working on the Los Angeles Times, at Los Angeles, Cal., was held up last Thursday morning by a hold-up man, on his way home from the printing office. Mr. Condon is a son of Mrs. B. E. Condon of this city and has a fine position with the Times. The Los Angeles paper gives the following account of the hold-up:

Lined up against the wall of the plant of the Floriston Paper company, San Fernando street, at about 1:45 o'clock this morning, three employees of the Times composing room—Albert Bates, C. E. Romer and Thomas Condon—were relieved of their loose change by a hold-up man lying in wait at the corner of San Fernando and Alpine streets.

The bandit secured not over $2 from the trio and then, bidding his victims hurry along, started north on San Fernando, past the Times plant.

The victims of the bandit shouted alarm and attracted the attention of other employees of the paper, going home. Several started to head off the hold-up, who dashed across the street and in front of the Cape Horn restaurant, exchanged shots with C. E. Eckert, also a Times employee, and with this shot others popped, one from the gun of one of the Times watchman; and in a rain of bullets the bandit cut across the street toward the Southern Pacific freight house.

Under the shadow of the freight house the hounded bandit ran into a railway watchman, and at six feet exchanged shots with him. The exchange did not prove immediately effective, as the bandit dashed on, down the east side of the freight house, leaving a trail of blood.

By this time scores had joined in the bandit hunt, and a few minutes after 2 o'clock a search was being made in box cars and corners for the desperado.

George and Magnus Tate to Be Owners—Store to Be Where Montgomery Shoe Co. is Now Located.

A haberdasher's shop is to be opened in Maryville about May 10, in the building where the Montgomery Shoe company is now located, on South Main street. The parties interested are George and Magnus Tate, and A. J. Luppold, who has been with the clothing store of Shepard & Hawkins, will be manager of the business.

The building will be remodeled and improved and all of the latest fixtures will be installed. The store will be one of the most beautiful and attractive in this part of the state when completed.

An exclusive high class haberdashery and shoes will be the lines that will be carried, and made-to-measure clothes will also be sold.

A. J. Luppold, who will be manager of the business, resigned his position recently with the Shepard-Hawkins clothing store of this city, where he has been since that store opened for business in this city. He is a good clothing man and has had a great deal of experience in that line of business. KOREA WAS SUBJECT

OF DR. REID'S LECTURE AT M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH, MONDAY EVE.

ITS COMMERCIAL VALUE

He Told of Its Possibilities to the Business World—General Description of the Country.

Dr. C. F. Reid, who was a missionary, and college president in China from 1897 to 1906, gave another lecture at the M. E. church, South, Monday night to a large audience. The fame of his Saturday night lecture on China had spread, and he was greeted by a much larger audience Monday night.

His lecture on Korea was as wonderful in its scope as was his lecture on China, but he was compelled to cut short his talk, amid outspoken regrets by many, on account of having to take the Wabash train for Mexico, where he will speak at a convention in progress.

When it is remembered that Dr. Reid has, in thought and speech, been in constant use of the Chinese, Japanese and Korean languages, it is a matter of wonder that he is able to hold audiences as he does in speaking his native tongue. He is a great hearted, great thinking man, has accomplished great things, and the people, Christian and un-Christian, hear him gladly.

He gave a general description of Korea to begin with, told its commercial and art value, and gave glimpses of its possibilities to the business world. His story of the beginnings of Christianity was thrilling and entrancing. Two leaflets, one on "The Immortality of the Soul" and the other on "The Nature of God," used by missionaries in China, in some way reached the court circle of Korea in the '60s, and were read and reread and showed to others, became the main subject of conversation. The people had gotten away from Confuscianism and Buddhism and were studying to appease the wrath of demons they had come to believe ruled the universe. At last some one was sent to see the people in China who were teaching about God to talk with them and secure more things concerning the God who they said loved the world. He came back with John's Gospel of Jesus, and it was not long before 4,000 students, representing the noblest blood of Korea, were studying the words of the Nazarene and learning that God was love.

The king made an order to stop the progress of this new religion, so foreign to the old religion, and ordered the banishment of one of the court nobles, Yun, who fled to China and was concealed in the home of Dr. Reid for five months. Dr. Reid learned the Korean language of him, and after a few years of waiting, the death of the

HISTORY OF THE U. C. T. ORGANIZATION BY ED G. OREAR

In the light of its splendid development and assured success, the story of the early struggles and vicissitudes of the order of United Commercial Travelers of America adds an interesting chapter to the history of commercial travelers' organizations in America.

The conception and birth of this order were brought about through a meeting of the east and west.

For over two years the germ of the idea lay fallow in the minds of the conceivers. The plan of a secret society among commercial travelers without benefits had been tried with indifferent success. Exclusively beneficial organizations for commercial travelers had, some of them, grown up, flourished and decayed. Successors to these, profiting by the sad experience of those gone before, appeared to be occupying the field to the exclusion of all newcomers of whatever kind or character. The prospect was not particularly flattering.

The U. C. T. idea was something along the middle ground between the strictly fraternal orders and the strictly beneficial associations.

The scheme was not quickly grasped by those to whom it was unfolded, because it seemed to possess no now features; and yet it was entirely new—so new that it was necessary to blaze a trail all the way.

It was here that the combined elements of character possessed by the pioneers in the movement came in for a rare trial of conclusions with the hard conditions presented.

Consciously or unconsciously, the plan evolved by the founders of our order was destined for a large development. It was a wide and nationalized movement from the start. It was not to be confined to any single section or grand division of the country. It was purposed that eastern thrift and southern chivalry should join with northern steadfastness and western energy in a concert of sympathetic co-operation.

This is set forth for the purpose of showing that the order of United Commercial Travelers of America was not a thing of accidental or freakish conception of growth. The foundation was laid broad and deep, and the superstructure has been reared with grace and symmetry, and has grown in prestige and solidity with the passing years.

Laws for the guidance of our order are framed in our supreme council meetings, which are held annually at Columbus, O., to which place many of our brothers are accompanied each year by their families, and as a consequence these annual meetings are made the occasion of a happy reunion of commercial travelers and their families, and the result is a delightful social and fraternal occasion, free from all extravagances and excesses of every kind. Right here seems a good place to say that it is expressly provided by our constitution that "the use of malt or spirituous liquors at any meeting of a council or at any banquet or other social entertainment given by or under the auspices of a council, or in any club room conducted in the name or under the auspices of this order is prohibited. The supreme counselor shall arrest the charter of any council violating this provision."

With this regulation strictly enforced, as it is, no member need feel a hesitancy in taking his wife and family and mingling freely with the good-humored and companionable crowd that is always present at our gatherings.

There is daily evidence that there exists a strong bond of sympathy and fellow feeling among the members of this order that may be witnessed in the cordial relations between wearers of the button who may perhaps hail from widely separated sections of the country.

The order, in all its principles, purposes and aims, is uplifting, and every influence it exerts makes for the ennobling of the character of the member, both in his relation to society and to the profession to which he belongs.

It teaches him that his is an honorable and useful calling; that upon his faithfulness and integrity rest large responsibilities in the world of business, and in the complex social systems of our times. It teaches him to respect himself, to guard against excesses, to shun evil associates and to use his God-given energies for the betterment of mankind rather than in the useless and ruinous dissipation which has proven the pitfall of so many of the brilliant men engaged in the selling vocation. It teaches him that in unity there is strength; that grievances and unjust discrimination yield to speedier and more satisfactory adjustment when approached by a collective force. It also teaches that collective forces should be used with judgment and moderation, and that due regard should be exercised for the rights of others.

Our order assumes no phase of unionism or paternalism, but it holds steadfastly to the highest ideals and embraces within its precepts all of the mercantile graces. It is not strange then, appealing as it does to the better side of the commercial traveler, that membership in it should be highly regarded by him, and that its prestige should be large among those of the craft.

The Sunday preceding the 9th day of April of each year is set aside and observed by all councils of the order as United Commercial Travelers' Memorial day. In the fixing of this date for the annual memorial service, the supreme council sought to commemorate the unselfish life and death while in the order's service of the first supreme secretary, Charles B. Flagg, who died on April 9th, 1901.

On this memorial Sunday all brothers of the order who have gone on before are recalled to their friends, and the services are a tribute to the dead and an inspiration to the living.

EDITORS TO BE HERE

INVITATIONS TO BE SENT OUT BY NORMAL AND PRESS.

FOR ANNUAL TRACK MEET

Exercises to Be Held the Latter Part of April—Several Entertaining Features.

Invitations were sent out Tuesday by President Taylor and by the local press to the newspaper men over the Normal district to be present to attend the exercises to be held in Maryville on April 27, 28 and 29, in connection with the annual track meet, the oratorical contest and teachers' meeting, as guests of the Normal school, the Commercial club and the local press.

A special program will be arranged in a few days for the entertainment of the newspaper editors by the committee who has it in charge, composed of President Taylor, J. F. Hull and James Todd. Several features, such as an automobile ride over the city and a luncheon, will be on the program.

The editors were entertained in Maryville last year at the first track meet held, and while only a few of them accepted the invitation to attend, they were well pleased and every one of them will come back again this year.

It is expected that a large number of the editors over the district will come to Maryville at that time.

NECESSARY TO RAISE $1,000 FOR BASE BALL

Maryville will not have a base ball team this year if the fans here don't get busy and raise the balance of the money necessary to run the team through the season. Some $1,200 has been raised by subscription, and it will take about $800 or $1,000 more.

The soliciting committee will make an effort to raise the balance Wednesday or Thursday, and if they are not successful the management will sell the franchise.

Several offers have been made for the Maryville franchise by Atlantic, Ia., and if the money is not raised by the end of this week Maryville will probably sell the franchise to that town.

It is necessary to get busy at once, and all those wanting league base ball in Maryville should help out the management.

The following is a telegram received by President L. C. Cook of the team, from R. G. Koch, in Albia, Ia., Tuesday morning:

"Have made arrangements to dispose of franchise if money isn't raised by next Friday. I will meet parties in Des Moines Friday, so inform me by Thursday if money is raised. I can save parties the expense of coming to Des Moines."

king and a new queen made it possible for Yun to return, and his love and friendship for Dr. Reid gave him entrance to Korea with the Gospel. But nearly all of the 4,000 students gave up their lives for the name of Jesus.

Later persecutions arose and the queen was put to death in a horrible manner for refusing to give up her faith in the Savior. But she left a history of the effort made by teachers and preachers to bring the knowledge of the true God, written during her imprisonment on a silk underskirt.

Dr. Reid's tribute to the Korean Christians, who he had known and worked with, was indeed inspiring, and the stories he told of their faith and sacrifice for God were inspiring, especially those of the queen, Yun and a Chinese Catholic priest, the latter having made his way into the high walled city by crawling through the sewer.

Hints of Spring in the Millinery Section

Beautiful New Styles Continually Bloom Forth

FROM the seclusion of show cases and the greater prominence of racks and shelves the new arrivals in Spring Hats show their charming colors.

Spring in the gay out-door world is heralded with flowers scarcely more beautiful than those which adorn crown and brim. Violets and June roses, wide eyed daisies and great bunches of vivid flowers lend their dainty beauty to the Hats which we present for your inspection.

Flowers are the first and most favored of the trimmings for Spring—Hats made entirely of flowers and leaves are wonderfully becoming.

Shapes are on the whole smaller this season—many modifications of the Tyrolean effects appearing in straw. Large Hats, however, have not been neglected—for more dressy wear many stunning effects are shown. And the beautiful new shapes in Panamas, Milans, Chips, Neapolitans and Hemps will excite the admiration of every woman.

HIS BROTHER IS LIKELY TO RECOVER

Jesse Paulette of the Campbell & Clark hardware store returned Monday night from St. Joseph, where he was called Saturday night on account of the injury to his brother, John Paulette, who was run down by a Grand Island train and so badly hurt that it was feared he would die.

The young man's condition is better and there seems to be a pretty good chance for his recovery. The Gazette of Tuesday morning says:

John Paulette, 28 years old, run over by a Grand Island train at Sixth and Monterey streets, Saturday night, has shown such wonderful vitality and recuperative power that Dr. E. S. Ballard says that he will probably survive the accident, which cost him his left leg.

"Paulette received some bad cuts on the head, but was conscious today and able to talk, something unusual in view of the immense quantity of blood which he lost," said Dr. Ballard. "He says that he does not recall anything that happened at the time of the accident."

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by

Free Child's Remedy

What mother is not looking for something that will help her children in the little ills of life, something for the stomach trouble and the bowel trouble? Long ago she probably has become convinced that a child cannot readily swallow a pill or a tablet, and that to "break them in half and crush them" is an annoyance; that usually they work too drastically, and are nauseating and too powerful for the little one's stomach.

Any mother who will take the trouble of sending her name and address can obtain a free sample bottle of a remedy that thousands of other mothers are using and now paying for. This remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the offer of a free trial bottle is open to any mother who has not yet used it. Having used it and convinced yourself that it is what you want, you can obtain it in the future of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing, the free sample being simply to convince you of its merits. It is the best way to begin on it. Mrs. L. Davis of 187 W. Harrison street, Chicago, and Mrs. Mary Belford, 1710 Coke street, Louisville, Ky., both started with a free sample and now they write that they have never been without a bottle in the house since.

It is undoubtedly a great family remedy, as it is adapted to all ages, being mild and pleasant to take and yet thoroughly effective. It is especially the ideal remedy for children and women and old folks, who need something pure, mild and natural. It has the advantage of being a thorough laxative and yet contains tonic properties. Use it for the most stubborn constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and such complaints with a guarantee that it will cure.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R-509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Wedding Announcement.

Maryville friends have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Lela Matherly, formerly of Maryville, and Mr. Ross C. Rouner, March 27, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matherly, at Neosho Falls, Kan., where they moved a year ago. The bride and groom are well known in this city. Mr. Rouner was formerly a Business college student. He is engaged in farming near Neosho Falls.

CITY HALL MEETING WITH APPROVAL

Petitions have been circulating for the past few days asking that a new city hall be built in Maryville on the present location. Up to this afternoon some 400 citizens had signed the petitions, and it is expected that in a day or so they will contain over 500 names.

The proposition seems to meet with the approval a large majority of the people, and it looks as if it will carry.

Mayor Robey and Architect Searcy will confer in regard to specifications and plans for the building some day this week. It is thought that the proposed building will cost $15,000.

The matter will be presented at the city council meeting to be held a week from Friday evening. It is thought that at that time the council will order that a special election be called for the purpose of voting on the proposition of a $15,000 bond issue for the city hall. It takes a two-thirds majority for the bond issue to carry.

CHURCH CENSUS WILL BE TAKEN

A meeting of the laymen of the various churches of our city, in response to a call from the Ministerial Alliance and the official boards of the churches of Maryville, will be held at the First Christian church at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

It is the purpose to appoint committees, one hundred men in all, to take a church census of the city and get an accurate enumeration of the church people of Maryville.

It is thought the census can be accurately secured in less than three hours.

UNABLE TO FIND CAUSE FOR THE FIRE

After an investigation for the causes of the fire that totally destroyed the Union depot Sunday night at Burlington Junction, by railroad detectives, they announced Tuesday that they had found no causes of the fire, and were at sea, but were of the opinion that the station was set on fire by a person or persons.

The fire Sunday night which destroyed the depot, which is used by both the Wabash and Burlington railroads, being the second fire within a week, gained such headway that it was impossible to put it out, and the building was a total loss, amounting to several thousand dollars.

WILL OPEN STUDIO IN RAVENWOOD

Miss Eva Spickerman, who has recently become a member of the faculty of the Maryville Conservatory of Music, will open a studio in Ravenwood, at the home of Professor and Mrs. Leonard King, where she will spend Tuesday and Wednesday of each week.

This was made necessary by numerous requests from the people of Ravenwood, and Director Landon has so arranged Miss Spickerman's work at the Conservatory that it will not interfere with the studio work at Ravenwood, where she has organized a class that promises to keep her busy for two days.

Miss Spickerman has already established a reputation for teaching that is very gratifying to Mr. Landon. She is one of the Conservatory's most talented graduates and her supplementary work under Mr. Landon, and later with Mr. Lambert of Chicago, has prepared her thoroughly for brilliant work as a teacher.

SUNNY MONDAY

There is not an ounce of rosin in Sunny Monday Laundry Soap. Rosin is used in all other laundry soaps—because it is cheaper than the fats and oils used in Sunny Monday. Sunny Monday costs more to manufacture than any other laundry soap of which we know. It is kind to clothes—will not shrink flannels or woolens, or turn clothes yellow.

Sunny Monday is just as pure as its whiteness indicates; it is the safest and most economical laundry soap you can use.

County Court Resolution.

The attention of the county court of this county has recently been called to the Missouri Farmer and Breeder, which is published at Columbia, and which is designed, among other things, to bring the farmers of this state into closer touch with Missouri's great agricultural college, an institution which is today without a superior in the United States, and of which every citizen of Missouri has just cause to feel proud. In view of these facts, we desire to commend the above publication to the farmers of Nodaway county, and further express the belief that it is in a position to contribute much toward a better and more profitable agriculture in this state.

FAVORED NATION CLAUSE NOT BAR

Customs Court Holds Reciprocity Agreement is Not Restricted.

SPECIAL CONCESSIONS UPHELD

Action of Customs Authorities in Refusing to Extend Low French Duty to Imports From England Upheld. Opinion Comes in Small Case.

Washington, April 11.—The customs court in a decision held in effect that the "favored nation" clause in the existing commercial treaties with England, France and Germany does not restrict the United States in effecting the proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada.

The court's decision was brought out by a comparatively unimportant contest over the rate of duty which should be imposed on whisky imported from England and France.

The point involved is the same which was raised in opposition to the proposed Canadian reciprocity agreement by those who claimed it was practically forbidden by the "favored nation" clause.

A. D. Shaw & Co., a firm of New York importers, protested payment of duty on whisky from England at the rate of $2.25 a gallon, holding they were entitled to a rate of $1.75, which is imposed on whisky and other spirits from France.

The essence of their claim was that under the most favored nation clause English liquors are entitled to be entered at the same rate of duty as is levied on such merchandise when imported from France and the other countries with which similar treaties have been executed.

The treaty with England was negotiated in 1815 and indefinitely extended in 1827. The treaties with France, Italy and Germany, which formed the basis of the importers' claim, were put into effect by the president under the tariff act of 1897.

Treaty of Mutual Concession.

Under the last named treaty, "in view of reciprocal and equivalent concessions," the rate on whisky from France was fixed at $1.75 a gallon. The court holds that by its terms the treaty is one of mutual consideration and concession. The importers' claim was that the concession of the lower rate of duty to France was a special favor within the purview of the treaty with England.

Citing several germane decisions by the supreme court, the court held that the portion of the tariff of 1897 which gave the president authority to negotiate commercial reciprocity agreements with other nations was not in conflict with the "favored nation" clause of the treaty with England. This portion of the decision, which was unanimous, is interpreted as removing one of the greatest obstacles yet raised against the proposed agreement with Canada.

The action of the customs authorities in refusing to extend the low French duty to imports from England was sustained.

The principle really involved was whether the favored nation clause in the treaty with England automatically gave to the nation the same advantages as were extended to France by the reciprocity agreement of 1898. The court decided that it did not.

The same principle is held to cover the situation which exists with regard to the proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada.
